

The Boston Rev. has had a great effect here - I heard the debate the other morning on it in the Senate. Clay was very angry & insolent to Davis - and Davis had no respect in him - He trembled under Clay - C's name here to D - was that of Squires to one of his small boys - I confess that I felt ashamed for my State that there was no man in the Senate to answer C. from Mass.
Hale of N. H. did answer him & he is a voice - but there are very few like him - but people lower - the South dominions -

I dine with Sir Henry Pedwar to day - & must hasten to close my note.

The world is full here - not a mouse hole unoccupied - but the government here is unhealthy & I wish to be away -

In the House there seems to be very little talent - but a great deal of talk - In the Senate we want a man - & I fear we shall have none - And I wish you were here the other day -

Yours ever affectionately W. W. L.
