With Sketches of Several Distinguished Colored Persons: to which is added a Brief Survey of the Condition and Prospects of Colored Americans.

BY WILLIAM C. NELL.

NO. 31 CORNHILL.

BOSTON.

This Work has been completed as a measure of self-defence and a proper and timely representation of the character of the colored race, of which this is the first attempt to put a collection of facts and arguments before the world in a comprehensive form. It is a compilation containing all the information on the subject that has been gathered from the most authentic sources. It will be admitted by the best authorities that from the earliest period the colored race has been a part of the national history and has contributed much to the progress of civilization. It is therefore a subject of pride and interest to the colored race to have their history and achievements represented in a correct and honorable manner.

The book is a valuable contribution to the history of the colored race, and is a necessary addition to the library of every intelligent and patriotic colored man. It is a work that will be read with interest and profit by all who are interested in the progress of civilization and the welfare of the race.
