

being all that the ~~subsequent~~ ^{Dec.} writer in 1859 here described lies in memory. There can have been little change there in ten years.
~~the secret had become the wife of Henry Thompson whose brother was killed at Harper's Ferry;~~
~~and the son I think of is apparently the presence~~ the son was probably over who was with his father at Oseratonia & Harper's escaped. Frederick, who was killed at ~~the~~ Oseratonia, in 1858, was ^{Ed} the ~~son~~ whom we saw coming home with his father, bringing the negroes the wagon. Among the small boys, playing & working about the house, were ~~John & Oliver~~ who were killed at Harper's Ferry. ^{I do not recollect seeing,} ~~I cannot recollect~~ the grave stone which ~~is~~ ^{is} ~~is~~ ^{is} of his grandfather, of the Revolutionary which Old Burr is said to have taken to from Connecticut placed against the side of the house; nor ^{can I recollect} the great rock, near the door, by the side of which ~~is~~ ^{is} lies his body,

"Mourning in the ground",
 "While his soul is marching on".

That payment never political loyalty, social ethics or military strategy may pronounce his operation into Virginia, Old Burr has a grasp on the moral world.