

My dear Field,

You will find nothing more important than a few verbal suggestions. The paper is full of interest and will be everywhere read as the others have been - perhaps even with more eagerness on account of the very striking picture of Lincoln.

Always yours

W. L.